Dear Parents/Carers,

We have just been made aware the accelerated reader link we shared with you on the 6th January has now been shut down and is no longer available to you. In order to still support reading at home we have found another link which has been pasted below. This will take you to the oxford owl website which has allocated a selection of eBooks your child can access for free.

This link has also been added to our "Home Learning Programmes and Resources" page of our website:

Kind regards
