22nd February 2021

Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope you all had a good break over half term. We are expecting more news from the Prime Minister today about the return of more pupils to school and once we have received guidance from the DfE we can share with you the plans for pupils to return to Wheatfields. In the meantime, remote learning and learning in school continues and well done to everyone for managing this situation so well for the children. Please continue to do what you can and the teachers are here to support you.

I thought you might be interested in a live assembly delivered by the NSPCC. The NSPCC will broadcast a live assembly on Tuesday 23 February at 10:00am via their Facebook page and it will be a refreshed version of the June 2020 virtual assembly to make sure it's in line with the current situation and shares new content that is relevant for parents and carers. It will feature TV presenters Ant and Dec as well as comedian and children's books author David Walliams. Make sure you tune in and please spread the word about it/share it among any parents or carers that you know.

We look forward to seeing more of you when we can.

Kind regards,

Theresa Thornton
Headteacher
